WEBB WON ON SECOND BALLOT

After Being Tied by J. C.
Humes on the First Ballot

HOT RACE FOR ACTUARY

Marked the Most Enthusiastic Meeting Ever Held by Local Insurance Company

The meeting of the members of the Rush County Farmers Insurance Association this afternoon was one of the most animated meetings ever held by the association. The canvass made by the three candidates for actuary was responsible for bringing out a large attendance, and the assembly room at the court house was filled to overflowing--men were climbing in the windows, and the corridors were crowded. John Gartin presided.

Three names were presented for actuary: Rue Webb, J. C. Humes and D. C. Buell. On the first ballot--by a strange coincidence--the candidates for first place were a tie, Webb and Humes receiving 244 votes each, and Buell receiving 98.

Buell withdrew and the two strong candidates faced the barrier. The second vote showed Webb the winner; he received 241 votes while Humes received 209 votes.

The affair had all the appearance of a hot county convention. The local banks were important factors in the contest.

THE RIGHT WAY TO WRITE BALL NEWS

Milroy Press Has Extended Front
Page Notice of Moscow's
Victory

In this manner the Milroy Press gives an account of the Moscow-Milroy ball game without mentioning the score or any of the players:

"And the Moscow ball team came out of the woods and held a great feast. Then they buckled on their armor and marched over against the Philistines, (Milroyites) and they strove together in three great battles and the Philistines were defeated and driven from their camps.

"And they called together their scribes and medicine men and held a council of war, and one Philistine said we have boasted over much we have given the Orange Valleyites no rest from our foolish gibes, now destruction has come upon us. Another said, we thought when our young warriors gained one battle that they were able to defeat these Orange people and we think now that the Orange Valleyites were only fooling us so they might relieve us of our shekels of silver and gold and we find we can stand against them, what shall we do. And the skinner of cows, seller of dry goods, the handler of red wine, the grinders of wheat, the buyers of old straw, the shoer of feet, the dispenser of cool drinks, the seller of ground bones, the holder down of benches on the streets and hundreds of other noise makers cried out with one voice, what shall we do, and the scribes and medicine men said let us fly to the hills and hide in the caves until the wrath of these people is appeased and so they flew. And the people of Orange valley were troubled no more forever."

WILLIAM FITZGERALD WAS INJURED AT POWER HOUSE

William Fitzgerald, aged fifty years, of East Seventh street, an employee of the I. & O. traction company, was painfully injured at the power house last night. The attending physician was obliged to take seven stitches in the wound in his leg.

—Mrs. Fitzgerald, who is the mother of the injured man, is at the hospital.

WILL ONLY ACCEPT ABLE BODIED PATIENTS NOW

O. L. Nash, of This City, Met
With Epileptic Board
Yesterday

O. L. Nash, of North Jackson street, this city, trustee of the State Epileptic Village at New Castle, was in this city yesterday attending a meeting of the board.

Six applicants have been accepted out of the many made. Great care is being exercised in the selection of patients. The hospital is not equipped just yet for the care of the violent patients. The class of patients accepted at the start are physically able to perform certain duties about the farm, and will assist in making it self-supporting as far as possible.

FARMERS SELL DOLLAR WHEAT

One Elevator Firm Received
Over Seven Thousands
Bushels Today

HIGHEST PRICE FOR YEARS

Golden Grain Had Not Reached the Dollar Mark Since
1897

The dollar wheat slogan, immortalized by farmers in the vicinity of Evansville, is having an inning in Rush county. Thursday, the first time this season, the elevators announced the dollar price had been reached and all wheat received was paid for at that rate. Many farmers have been holding their wheat for this mark and doubtless within the next few days the roads will be crowded with farm wagons loaded with wheat. The farmers in this locality have never organized themselves seeking to force the price of wheat to the dollar mark, but scores have held the grain with this in view. One elevator man said today that he had received over 7000 bushels at one dollar.

RUSHVILLE FOOT BALL TEAM WON THE GAME TODAY

Superior Playing in Fast Field
Work Defeats Shelbyville
Eleven

The raw weather and the "rah!" of the foot ball enthusiasts were in evidence at the game today between Rushville and Shelbyville.

The girl in the white sweater was there with a big R. on her breast, shouting herself hoarse and not giving any attention to the game. Red and black was waved in the face of the enemy as the high school yells floated out on the chilly and penetrating October breeze.

But the best part of it all, Rushville won the game. It was easy. Score, 12 to 0; and all made in the second half.

The features of the game was all the work of the Rushville lads. Sparks did some well kicking, and the fast field work of Abernathy and Norris brought forth cheers. Norris and John Moffett (another star player) made the touchdowns. "Gig" Moffett kicked off, and he does it with ease--and his mouth opened.

Ralph Stiffler was referee and Beeler Campbell, of Shelbyville, officiated as umpire.

—Cary Walton and son William, of Greenfield, and Walton Scott, of Rushville, spent a few days with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Walton, west of town. The little folks had a good time hunting beechnuts out in the woods those pleasant October days. It was a great treat for them.

—Dolph Humes, of Indianapolis is here to spend Sunday, the guest of relatives and friends.

HAPPY CHIEF HE WANT BIG JOB

Chief Norris and His Braves go to Great Council
Tuesday

WILL BE LOADED FOR BEAR

Council Fires of Tanpah Camp Will Burn Tomorrow Afternoon For Preliminaries

Ugh! Camp fires burning, hopeful hearts yearning. Tanpah tribe would like to have their "Happy Chief" the smiling redskin, O. C. Norris, made Great Junior Sagamore of the Indiana hunting grounds. For that reason a meeting will be held at the wigwam Sunday afternoon, and for that very same reason arrangements have been made for special rates on the railroads next Tuesday when the Great Council meets at Tomlinson hall, Indianapolis. The local Indians are an industrious bunch and this year have not been "letting the squaws do the work." A thorough canvass of the State has been made by Mr. Norris and his lieutenant "braves," and they feel confident that the Rushville man will "cop the coon skins."

QUEER DEVICE IS SENT TO LOCAL MAN

Tom Green Thought he Had Received an Infernal Machine "At First"

Yesterday T. M. Green received a small, innocent looking piece of tin tubing in the early morning mail and was at a loss to know "what in the world" anyone would send him such a device. At first it was thought it might be an infernal machine, but later it was found that there was no explosives about it, and by blowing on it, a clear musical note was heard.

A letter came about noon explaining why the tube was sent here. Skougard, the great violin virtuoso comes to Rushville November 1st, in concert, under the auspices of the Lecture Bureau. The artist is very particular that the piano used to accompany him, is tuned in the correct pitch--the international concert pitch--and for that end sends in advance tuning tube. The tube makes a clear C and the local management is obliged to have the piano in perfect harmony with it--otherwise they will have to deal with an enraged foreign, an artist with a sensitive and artistic temperament.

FLASHED A GUN ON MAIN STREET

Drunken Man Was "Taking the Town" in True Western Style When Corraled

A staggering man, flashing a shining, ugly appearing revolver, created quite a little sensation on Main street about seven o'clock last night.

City Marshal Price was apprised of the man's actions and hurrying to the scene found him creating a disturbance near the Wallace poppery.

He was placed under arrest and taken to jail where he was relieved of a .38 calibre revolver.

The fellow gave as his name Charles Wolfe, a painter from Connersville. He is an epileptic and has given the police of the two cities trouble on numerous occasions.

SPECIAL SERMON FOR YOUNG PEOPLE BY COWLING

Rev. J. F. Cowling will deliver a special sermon to young people Sunday evening choosing for his subject "The Young Man Absolved."

EDITORIALETTES

Today was an ideal day for the foot ball game, for it was Raw! Raw! Raw!

When you say anything mean behind a friend's back, and are found out, there is only one thing to do--deny it.

The automobilists of Rushville are a sorry lot on account of the condition of the streets since the sewers came to town.

Baseball has been divorced and now the "sweet girl giddy" has for her "soul twin" an affinity in the foot ball hero.

"Waste paper boxes on the public square would solve the problem of littered streets," says Street Commissioner T. Melville Greenlee.

Let three or four critics get after you and they will find as many faults as a sieve has holes. Children are happy because they have no critics.

A smiling countenance is not always an index to a clear conscience. Some men smile cheerfully after accomplishing a crooked deal; and with many the crooked deal the more cheerful and broader the smile.

There will be 116 delegates in the Republican Congressional convention in this district. This means that the successful candidate must get fifty-nine votes. And no doubt that looks easy to most of the aspirants for the honor.

It still looks good, it might be said very good, for Laurel as the home for the new tuberculosis hospital. It is significant that whenever sites are mentioned in Indianapolis papers that of "Laurel" almost invariably heads the list.

"Who do you think will win," was the question asked many times today. And then it was up to the one questioned whether the inquisitor meant the race between the Cubs and the Tigers, or the one between Humes, Webb and Buell.

The Indianapolis chief of police has issued an order to the variety and burlesque theatres that hereafter Spanish and Oriental dances must be cut out. In other words wiggling will not go hereafter--neither will a number of Rushville patrons who heretofore attended.

The little district convention held here this week, by the W. R. C. did more towards advertising and advancing Rushville than anything we have had for some time. All the newspapers of the surrounding cities contained lengthy write-ups of the convention. Let's make a bid for conventions on all occasions.

"AILEEN WILSON" LOWERED RECORD

Beat Joe Patchen's Record Over
Two Seconds in State of Virginia, Sah!

Dick Wilson won with Aileen Wilson yesterday at the race meeting in Richmond, Virginia, and wires that he won with "hands down."

Her race was something of a surprise to the Virginians and both the little mare and driver were roundly cheered when the starter announced at the end of the third heat that Aileen Wilson had beaten the State record over two seconds, going the mile in 2:05. Until yesterday Joe Patchen held the State record, 2:08. The course at Richmond is a half mile track, and Wilson wired that on a mile track he could have sent the mare in 2:03 or better yesterday. She will be shipped home today.

Charles Longfellow and Ella Negley, of Sexton, were married this afternoon by Squire Jackson at the court house.

Charles Vail, of the Daily Republican reporter staff, continues ill at his home on North Perkins street.

Prof. Bicknell, of Chicago, a noted lecturer on Christian Science, will speak here next Thursday evening, under the auspices of the local church.

MESSAGES OVER THE AIR WAVES

Wireless Telegraph Station
Will Soon be Located in Rushville

IS PROMISE OF THE AGENT

Who is Here Trying to Dispose of Stock in the Pacific Telegraph Company

M. E. Hindman, of the Pacific Wireless Telegraph Company, was in the city this week. He represents the Pacific Wireless Telegraph company which it is claimed has been in successful operation for years. His business here was to sell sufficient stock to business men and manufacturers to enlist their interest and patronage. He promises that a wireless station will be located in Rushville within a year if all goes well. The Cincinnati Enquirer yesterday morning contains the following special from Milwaukee, regarding the company:

"Cincinnati is to be on the route of the new wireless telegraph line to Chicago and New York, opened here today for commercial business with the transmission of about a dozen messages. The company will next establish a station at Indianapolis, then Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Wheeling and New York. The stations will be established in that order as fast as commercial business proves profitable. It is reported here that arrangements have already been made at all the points for wireless stations."

It is understood that Mr. Hindman was not successful in disposing of much stock in Rushville, for a number of our citizens recently invested in stock of "an air" variety.

SUB FACTORY MAY BE LOCATED HERE

President Buch Was Highly Pleased With Rushville--
Visited A. V. Spivey

R. S. Buch, president of the Buch Manufacturing company of Philadelphia, Pa., was here yesterday the guest of Ad. V. Spivey, who is employed as a traveling salesman for the firm. Mr. Buch is of the old conservative stock of Pennsylvania Germans. He was highly pleased with Rushville and will return in a few weeks with his wife to visit a few days.

Mr. Buch left instructions with Mr. Spivey of a nature which tends to make one think that he might locate a branch factory here.

NOT UNLAWFUL TO KILL SQUIRRELS THIS MONTH

But Season Closed October
First For all Other Game

The notices that are going the rounds of newspapers that the season for hunting squirrels ended the first day of October is a mistake. It is not against the statute to shoot squirrels during the month of October, the last session of the legislature having extended the open season one month. The season is closed as before, however, as to other game.

SKELETONS ARE HIDDEN AWAY

Grim Tales That Books Could
Tell in the County
Clerk's Office

OFFICIAL REMINICENT

And Remarked What Volumes
Those Volumes Would Disclose if Opened

It was before the "big noise" of the Rush County Farmers Insurance Association meeting at the court house this morning. Quiet reigned, for things are mighty slow when court is not in session and tax payers are not in line.

Deputy County Clerk Will McCollin, who is recuperating from a strenuous session of court which closed last Saturday evening, was in a reminiscent mood. He did not even feel like telling a brand new story, but his mind drifted along a more serious line of thought.

"See those many old records and books on the shelves there," he began as he lighted a cigar given him by a friend, they hold between their covers many an interesting story that has long ago been forgotten by all except the parties concerned and are completely unknown to the younger generation in this community.

"Occasions come when it is necessary to go through these records to establish some fact and then it is that the ghost appear and the skeletons that once inhabited the closets of Rush county men and women and finally reached the public view, again reappear in all their horror. It would be nothing short of criminal to permit them again to be in the light, and the lids of the big books are closed with haste and determination to 'let the dead past bury its dead.'"

"Here one finds stories of divorce, damage suits due to the weaknesses of men and women, broken homes, and so on, the monotony broken occasionally by the marriage records revealing an escape from parental objection or the happy union of the first love."

"Most all these old affairs and galantries have been lived down and peace and happiness reign where once there was scandal and worry."

"Nevertheless the stories the old books tell are of interest and wonder, and would afford material for gossip for days to come."

FITTING TRIBUTE TO P. A. HACKLEMAN

Capt. Gowdy Introduces a Resolution Favoring Appropriation by Legislature

Capt. John K. Gowdy, of this city, introduced a resolution at the meeting of Fifth Calvary, held in Indianapolis Thursday at the State House, favoring an appropriation by the next Legislature for the erection of a monument to Gen. Pleasant A. Hackleman, of Rushville, who was the only Indiana general killed during the civil war. Capt. Gowdy, in introducing the resolution, said that although Gen. Hackleman lies buried in East Hill cemetery at Rushville he thought it best to place a monument to the general's memory in Indianapolis, probably in University Park. The resolution was adopted.

IMPORTANCE OF GOOD SEED CORN

It Should be Gathered Before the First Severe Frost
Each Fall

CORN THIS YEAR IS LATE

Selected Ears Should be Kept in a Natural and Airy Dry Place

The importance of properly selecting and caring for seed corn has been so thoroughly discussed and brought to the attention of farmers in every conceivable way during the last few years, that there can be no adequate excuse for any corn grower neglecting to save a good supply of seed corn and put it up in a safe, dry place before killing frosts occur. It is not so much a question of what to do, or how to do it, but rather of getting started to do it. All observing and up-to-date farmers know well enough what should be done, but the habit of letting such things go until some other time causes many to allow themselves to neglect this important matter until it is too late to get the best results. There is plenty of evidence to convince even the most unreasonable man that the time to get the best seed corn is early in the fall, when it can be selected from the standing stalks and put away in a dry, well ventilated place before damaging frosts occur.

The great majority of farmers in the State do not get more than three-quarters of a full stand of corn in their fields and the result is 20 per cent less corn at harvest time than should be secured, without any more expense in producing the crop. The cause of the imperfect stand nearly always lies in the use of poor seed for planting. If every farmer in the State would get his seed corn properly stored by the middle of October, several millions of dollars would be added to the value of the corn crop next year.

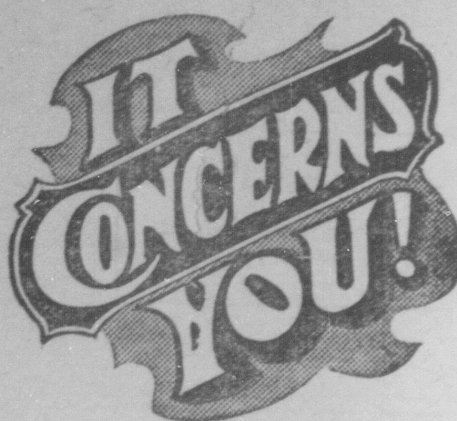

All seed corn should be gathered before the first severe frost and it may be safely done as soon as the corn is well denting. This year much of the corn is very late and many fields are liable to be damaged by the first severe frost and this makes it all the more important to act promptly.

A good way to do is to take a handy basket on the arm or sling a grain bag over the shoulder by means of a stout cord and go into the best and ripest corn field and go up and down the rows and select the best ears from the best hills, taking care to select only from stalks of stout development under normal conditions and which bear the ear in a good position. The selected ears should be at once put in a dry, airy place, where they can dry out naturally. Artificial drying should not be resorted to unless in cases where there is not time for natural drying before severe frosts are liable to occur. When the ears are still sappy the application of artificial heat may easily do harm by inducing fermentation, a very little of which will injure the germs and cause weakness. There are many ways in which corn may be safely put up for drying.

A good rack may be made of pieces of five or six inch fence lumber set on end and common plastering laths nailed across the edges on either side opposite each other, spaced six inches apart to a convenient height. A single row of ears should be placed in each space at first, to permit of more rapid drying. Tying two ears and hanging the mover wires stretched a foot or more apart across a dry room is an excellent system for drying. Whatever the scheme used for drying, the important thing to keep in mind is that each ear must have a free circulation of air all around it. Putting the ears in bags or piling together in any way must be avoided. If the corn can be made dry before freezing weather and then kept in a dry place throughout the winter, it will be in perfect condition in the spring. Seed corn should never be put into a building containing live stock of any kind, because of the moisture given off by the animals.

A bursted gas pipe was found in front of A. L. Riggs' home on North Perkins street today and repaired. It is thought that the workmen employed on the sewer struck the pipe while picking in the trench. At Greensburg last year a natural gas explosion followed such a leak, destroying a large building there.

Congressman Watson spoke at Noblesville today at a soldiers reunion, and will return tonight to spend Sunday with his family.

FOR CONGRESS!

C. W. Stivers a Candidate.

To the Republicans of the Sixth District:
The undersigned is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in Congress from the 6th district; subject to the decision of Republican voters at the nominating elections and conventions in the counties of the district to be held next Spring. I will meet the people of the district in their home counties in public address in the near future.

CHAS. W. STIVERS.

One of our esteemed contemporaries is manifesting considerable impatience because we are not already enjoying greater results from the pure food laws. We regret to see this. It should be borne in mind that the enforcement of these laws requires the consideration of very many petty details, and that in many an instance both the dealer and the agents of the State board of health find it a difficult matter to determine just "where they are at." It wasn't until the meeting of the last legislature that the State board was provided with means to enforce the laws already in existence, and there has hardly been time even to set in motion the forces that, we believe, are to result in a practical transformation in the quality of many foods and in the general sanitary condition. Just a little patience, brother, and you will see results that at first thought seem incredible today.

Cardinal Gibbons, in an article appearing in Putnam's Monthly for October, strongly advises the American workmen to alter their attitude toward their employers and adds, in connection with strikes and intimidations:

"Every American citizen has the right to be protected in his efforts to earn an honest livelihood. No man or combination of men should have the power to prevent him from following his vocation, even by intimidation, for he may have not only himself but a wife and children for whom to provide. It is my opinion that the honest laborer who is willing to do work which is proper and in no way conflicts with the interests of the community should be given the opportunity to perform it, and to have the same protection from the authorities which is extended to any peaceful citizen, no matter how powerful or influential may be the person or society which opposes him."

The Cardinal strongly expresses his disapproval of the boycott as practised by labor unions, and also urges the workmen of the country to avoid strikes and intimidation in any form.

AN OBJECT LESSON

Hoosier Statesmen Cutting the Cock-tail Off Their Bills of Fare.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 12.—The action of the Methodist conference at Columbus, which refused to send Vice President Fairbanks to the quadrennial gathering of the church at Baltimore next May because he served forty Manhattan cocktails at the dinner he gave here in honor of President Roosevelt, has furnished a number of aspiring Hoosier "statesmen" with an object lesson they are not liable to forget during the coming campaign. It is a fact that some of them have cut out cocktail drinking in cafes and have eschewed them in their own homes when there are any guests who are not known to be thoroughly trustworthy. The sparkling Manhattan with its festive cherry and the soothing Martini are things of the lamented past, especially with the class of politicians who are seeking high offices. So wrought up are some of the Republican leaders over the fate that befell the vice president that they do not give their dinner guests an opportunity to suggest an "appetizer" lest some Prohi may be lurking near enough to see the long-stemmed glass on the table between them.

James Kirby Risk of Lafayette is doing a lot of work to land the chairmanship of the Democratic state committee. It was learned, however, from members of the present organization that John Gilbert McNutt of Terre Haute is very favorably considered by them for the state chairmanship. There is not much doubt but that he would receive their backing if he would say the word, but he is not expected to become a candidate. What looks like a real boom for the place is being started for Edward Hoffman of Fort Wayne, better known in his own ballistics as "Gum-Shoe Ed." He is chairman of the Allen county committee and is regarded as a bright, aggressive young leader. In many respects he is said to have the desirable elements of strength that go to make up a successful leader. His location is in his favor, and he is supposed to be on very good terms with the pres-

ANOTHER BIG FINE

The Atchison Stands to Be Soaked For a Million For Rebating.

THIS IS THE MAXIMUM

Jury in Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Case Finds Road Guilty on All Counts.

Fine Which the Court May Assess Aggregates the Neat Sum of $1,100,000.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 12.—After brief deliberation the jury in the case of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company, charged with rebating, rendered a verdict of guilty on all counts enumerated in the indictments. The maximum fine for the offenses is $1,100,000, and the minimum is $66,000.

The jury was out twenty minutes. Judge Welborn will announce his decision next Monday. The charge against the Santa Fe was that it had granted rebates from its regular tariff on shipments of lime by the Grand Canyon Lime and Cement company of Arizona. The defense was that the rebates were "concessions" for alleged losses in the shipments during transit. The trial began Sept. 30.

thropy, and to those of middle classes who have witnessed and sympathized with her efforts to be of service to mankind.

The noble house of Warwick, owning 3,000 acres and the most beautiful castle in England, is classed as land poor.

One persistent report is that the countess' real object in visiting America is to find a tenant for the grand old family seat and lease it.

A few weeks ago the agricultural college which the countess founded had to be abandoned, as she was unable to raise funds to continue it.

Bacon Saves Boy's Life.

Boston, Oct. 12.—Assistant Secretary of State Robert L. Bacon figured in an heroic rescue on the Charles river late yesterday when he jumped from the Harvard launch Veritas and swam to the rescue of two boys who had capsized in a canoe. He saved the life of one. The second boy was rescued by J. S. Reed, a student of Harvard, who followed Bacon into the water.

Kurtz Found Guilty.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 12.—In the disbarment proceedings against ex-Prosecuting Attorney George A. Kurtz, who was charged with the prostituting of his office, which, among other things, resulted in the escape of "Red" Austin, the notorious swindler, the jury found him guilty, and his name will be stricken from the bar roll.

Czar's Boat Strikes Rock.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 12.—There are persistent reports here that a pine landing the emperor of Russia from the imperial yacht yesterday, struck a rock and sprung a serious leak. His majesty was transferred to another pine. This mishap, following the stranding of the imperial yacht Standart, has caused much comment.

Morocco Still Stirred Up.

Tangier, Oct. 12.—Tidings from southern Morocco are anything but reassuring for the "pacification" of this distracted empire. Credible native sources of information assert that the famous chieftain Caid Anloos, the "Raisuli" of the south, has occupied Mogador and thrown the local governor into jail.

Vote Buying Alleged.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 12.—Prosecutor Wayne Anglin is conducting an investigation of the charge that there was vote buying in the effort to obtain a railway subsidy. The grand jury has been asked to investigate.

CHARGE OF MURDER

State in the Magill Case Makes a Change of Base.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 12.—Assistant State's Attorney Mitchell, opening for the state, demanded the death penalty for Fred Magill, the Clinton banker. Following an eleventh hour decision by the attorneys for the state, he made the direct charge of murder instead of the claim that Magill was responsible for his wife's death, because he drew her into a suicide compact.

"Fred Magill killed his wife by administering chloroform and by strangling her by wrapping a blanket about her head. He was aided by Fay Graham—now Faye Graham Magill—who was present either in person or incited him to the deed," declared Mitchell. "The state will contend that Magill murdered his wife and took the body to where it was found and placed in the position that would lead to a suicide theory. Faye Graham and Magill desired Pet Magill's death. They had intended for Magill to get a divorce in June, but he found that he could not. After his wife's death he and Faye Graham were married with indecent haste."

Magill's attorneys contended in their statements that Mrs. Magill took her own life. After the statement by the lawyers, the introduction of testimony was begun. Wesley Davis, a tenant on Magill's farm, testified that he heard Magill say that "he felt a rope around his neck and he wanted to die." Mrs. Davis testified that she had asked Magill when his wife had retired on the night of her death, and on being told at 11 o'clock, remarked that she must have been kept busy writing letters from then until she had killed herself. Magill's response was that some of the letters were written a long time before.

Dr. Meyers, the principal witness of the state, admitted on cross-examination that he had treated Mrs. Pet Magill for heart disease and that a person with a weak heart would succumb to chloroform with less struggle than a healthy person.

Mining Swindle Alleged.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 12.—A story is published here to the effect that numerous Montana and Washington investors have been misled to the extent of more than a third of a million dollars through the discovery that certain placer mines near Lander, Wyo., have been salted and that the property in question is worthless.

Body Taken to Woodstock.

Columbus, O., Oct. 12.—The body of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, who died in the woman's ward of the Ohio penitentiary, was taken last evening to Woodstock, Ont., the place of her birth, for burial. The body was accompanied by Emil Hoover, son of Mrs. Chadwick, the dead woman, and Mrs. J. W. Weston, a sister, of Woodstock.

For the Third Successive Game Chicago Beats Their Detroit Rivals.

WELL-DESERVED VICTORY

On Their Own Ground Detroit Loses to Chicago Through the Latter's Superior Playing.

Several Errors of Omission on the Part of the Tigers Tell on the Score Sheet.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 12.—In the first game of the world's series on their own field, the Detroit American League team was beaten yesterday afternoon by the Chicago Nationals, 6 to 1. It was a well-deserved victory for the Chicago team, as it played superior baseball throughout. There were several errors of omission by Detroit besides two fielding errors. All of these figured in the run-making.

It was anything but baseball weather. The temperature ranged between 46 and 50 degrees, with a cold twelve-mile wind from the north blowing across the diamond. Several times there were showers, one while Chicago was batting in the fifth inning, being so heavy that it was necessary to stop play for fifteen minutes. Again in the seventh there was a sharp shower, but it did not last long enough to interrupt the game. The attendance was a disappointment, reaching only 11,306. The raw, cold day probably had some effect on the crowd, together with dissatisfaction with the arrangements governing the sale of tickets.

Detroit looked dangerous and bunched hits in but one inning, the fourth, when, with two out, Cobb's fine three-bagger was followed by two singles, O'Leary striking out with the bases full. The Detroit team did not show at any time the snap and dash which marked their work in the American League race. Just before play was called Manager Hugh Jennings was called to the plate, where Mayor Thompson presented to him a life-size floral tiger and a gold watch.

The receipts were $17,285.50, divided as follows: The players, $9,334.17; the national commission, $1,728.55; the Detroit and Chicago clubs, $3,111.39 each.

COURT COULDN'T SEE IT

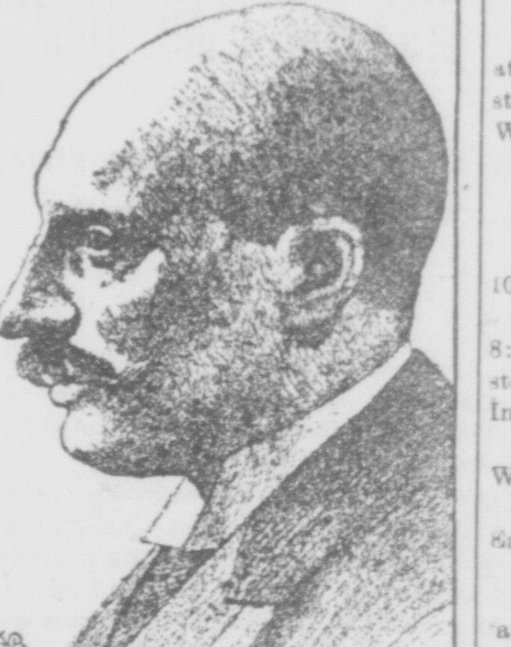

New York Preacher and "Affinity" Held for Inquiring de Dippy.

New York, Oct. 12.—Rev. Maxwell H. W. Walenta, pastor of St. Lucas Reformed church of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Louis A. Bauer, a parishioner, were arrested yesterday and held for an inquiry into their mental conditions. The action was instituted by Mr. Bauer and the minister's father, Rev. Wenzel Walenta, of the German Emanuel Reformed church of Brooklyn. The complaint asserted that Mrs. Bauer left her husband and child and sought refuge at the younger clergyman's house. The two were charged with offending public decency.

In court the accused minister, who is twenty-eight years of age, denied wrongdoing, but admitted that the woman had been welcome to his "official rooms" at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. She and her husband had differences, he explained.

"I felt in Mrs. Bauer a living soul, and my soul cried aloud for somebody who was alive in the twentieth century. In her I realized my affinity." "I believe you have been working overtime," commented the magistrate, who committed the prisoners for mental examination.

Evidences of Murder.
Cincinnati, Oct. 12.—H. B. HOWARD, a wealthy coal dealer of Hartwell, a suburb, who had been missing for more than twenty-four hours, was found yesterday afternoon in a railroad coal shed, apparently murdered. The body had been covered with sacks and pieces of coal and the head was battered in. This is the second murder in the Mill Creek valley this week.

Itch is in the Skin, Not in the Blood

People With Eczema, etc., Make Grievous Error by Taking Medicine into the Stomach

When your hand is scalded with hot water until it blisters and burns, you don't drink medicine to cure it. You apply a healing lotion to the injured skin.

Eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, barber's itch and other such diseases of the skin cannot be cured by filling the stomach with medicine any more than you can cure a burn by drinking medicine. The diseases named are caused by germs in the skin. Kill the germs and the disease goes away and the skin is left pure and white as nature intended it to be.

That mild, simple liquid, oil of wintergreen, probably compounded in D. D. D. Preparation routs the germs and heals the skin so perfectly that you can never tell where the disease was.

"No tongue can tell nor pen can portray what I suffered for ten years from Eczema," writes Mrs. R. R. Latta of Garrison, Mo. "I was treated by the best doctors in the west, but received no benefit. Three bottles of D. D. D. cured me sound and well. Six or eight months have passed and there is no sign of return. My advice to all is, don't delay. Begin the use of D. D. D. at once and be cured."

We have carried D. D. D. for a long time because we know it takes away the itch and we believe it to be an infallible remedy in the treatment of Eczema and other skin diseases.

BEARS FOOLED HIM

Bruin Was Foxy Enough to Keep Away From President's Camp.

Stamoul, La., Oct. 12.—Roosevelt camp at the Monticello crossing of the Bayou Tensas has passed into history. The president left the place yesterday, and when he turned his back on the camp it was with a determination not to return. He headed toward Bear Lake, whence on Sunday he will remove to another camp, which will be pitched near Newellton in Tensas parish, on a branch of the Iron Mountain railroad. The change of location was decided upon not only because no bear had been killed, but because the president and his friends became convinced that there were none, or practically none, on the upper Tensas.

They have thrashed the woods covering the entire country around the Monticello crossing, and it is still a matter of doubt whether any fresh sign of the presence of the bruin family has been discovered. No member of the party has secured the remotest glimpse of a bear, nor have any of the dogs, with which they are supplied, struck at any time a well-defined bear trail.

The reports from Newellton are encouraging. Ever since the president arrived in this section he has been receiving letters telling him that there were plenty of bears within a few miles of that town. The new camp will be on Bayou Tensas, as was the other, but forty miles south of the present site, and it will be about twelve miles inland from the railroad.

REVIEW OF TRADE

Several Things Tend to Check Wholesale Business.

New York, Oct. 12.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Stringent markets, delay in movement of some leading crops and unseasonably warm weather in some sections have operated to check wholesale trade for next year and retail trade in seasonal goods. It is worth of note, however, that Western, Southwestern and Southern jobbers report an increased volume of re-order business, indicating that country merchants have had a prosperous fall and that early conservative buying necessities repair of broken stocks.

Collections are irregular, some improvement being noted in the South, where the cotton crop has moved in good volume. A favorable feature of the week has been the strength of all cereals and of flour, large foreign demand being the assigned cause, although the smaller outturn shown by the agricultural department's October report is an independent influence making for high prices. Reports from leading industries are not greatly changed.

Tommy's Problem.

"I don't see what's the use of my being vaccinated again," said Tommy, baring his arm for the doctor. "The human body changes every seven years, Tommy," replied his mother. "You are eleven years old now. You were in your fourth year when you were vaccinated first, and it has run out."

"Well, I was baptized when I was a baby. Has that run out too?"

Wonderful Endurance Test.

Cincinnati, Oct. 12.—Dan O'Leary, the famous pedestrian, who is walking a mile each hour at Norwood Inn here, in an attempt to establish a record for 1,000 miles, at 11 o'clock last night covered his 800th mile. He started on Sept. 8 and expects to finish his journey one week from tomorrow morning, by which time he will have finished the last mile of the 200 miles yet to go. O'Leary is sixty-five years of age.

A FIGHT TO DEATH

Family Feud Results In Murder When Men Battle With Knives.

A BATTLE AT AN OLD MILL

Robert Dowdell Killed by His Brother-in-Law Near Perrysville--Claims Self-Defense.

Quarrel of Long Standing Was Resumed and Both Men Drew Their Pocket Knives.

Covington, Ind., Oct. 12.—A lonely spot near an old grist mill was the scene of a tragedy at Perrysville, eight miles southwest of here, when Robert Dowdell, sixty-five years old, was stabbed to death by his brother-in-law.

For a long time a family feud has existed and on frequent occasions Dowdell and his brother-in-law, Robert Olney, have quarreled. Two weeks ago, it is alleged, Dowdell took some money belonging to his son and became intoxicated. For this he was reprimanded by his brother-in-law.

The men met near the mill just at dusk and the quarrel was resumed. Olney asserts that Dowdell hit him on the head with a large stone, knocking him to the ground, when he in self defense drew his pocketknife and stabbed Dowdell, inflicting about ten wounds.

Dowdell also drew his knife and cut Olney in several places, but his wounds are not serious. The two men were alone when the fight occurred, and when the battle was over and Dowdell lay prostrate on the ground, Olney arose and, asking a small boy who was passing to stand guard over the prostrate form, went to the mill and called for help, saying he had killed his brother-in-law.

When help arrived Olney was found with blood dripping from his own wounds, leaning over the dead body of Dowdell and wringing his hands in agony. He expressed regret at having killed Dowdell, but said he had to do it in self-defense.

Olney was not arrested, but was allowed to go to his home to await the coroner's verdict. Dowdell was a gardener and was known to be quarrelsome when drinking. Olney is a bachelor forty-eight years old. The men lived within two blocks of each other. Dowdell leaves a widow and family.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE

That Train Did Not Plunge Down Embankment Is Cause for Wonder.

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 12.—The engine on a north-bound Lake Erie & Western passenger train jumped the track near the Stony Creek bridge, one mile south of this city. The accident was not serious, but a remarkable feature was the engine running half a mile on the ties and rounding two curves without turning over in that distance.

The accident was caused by a flange on one of the drive-wheels breaking. This occurred while the train was speeding down a grade at the rate of forty miles an hour, and was the result of a flaw in the flange. Passengers on the train say the report from the break resembled the bursting of a half-dozen automobile tires at the same time. The engine left the track and jolted along on the ties around two sharp curves and across the Stony Creek bridge before the engineer could stop the train.

The pilot on the engine was badly damaged and the steam chest on the fireman's side dented in a number of places. None of the coaches left the track.

The train crew and section men consider it very remarkable that the engine remained on the ties for such a long distance, and especially in view of the fact that it was running at such a high rate of speed around two curves. There is a high embankment on each side of the track where the engine ran on the ties.

Bound Over to Court.

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 12.—Lovell Bowers, Jacob Kirk, Charles Sylvester and David Fox, four residents of Monroe county, had a preliminary hearing in this city on the charge of assisting in the Vanest whittapping two months ago. The four men, together with the three Stull brothers and Charles Seitz, were released on $1,000 bond each soon after they were accused of connection with the crime. After a hearing all the men were released on bond and their cases will come up during the next term of court.

Joited in the Yards.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 12.—The private car of Marie Cahill was badly joited. A coupling broke while the car was being switched in the Goshen yards. Miss Cahill has a sprained spine and neck, Miss Nellie Lynch a sprained ankle, and Miss Anna Mooney was bruised. Harry Tolson, a colored chef, suffered a concussion of the brain.

Severed His Windpipe.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 12.—Ira May, held at the county jail for breaking the smallpox quarantine, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a knife. He succeeded in severing his windpipe, but will recover.

Prominent Citizens Do Battle.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 12.—A sensational shooting occurred near New Market, the victim being John Fanning, a prominent citizen, who was fatally wounded by Dr. A. C. Allen. Dr. Allen surrendered to the sheriff at Huntsville. The cause of the shooting is unknown.

Three Lynched for Burglary. Macon, Miss., Oct. 12.—Three negroes were lynched here for a series of burglaries. Two were burned to death and the third was hanged.

A Conundrum.

(Original.)

A gentleman midway between birth and threescore years and ten sat with a girl of eighteen. He was still young enough to be considered a companion for a young lady, though within a few years of the time when in calling upon one of them she would probably ask if he was looking for her father or mother. In this case the two had been friends for years. When the girl was a child and he in the twenties, she had been accustomed to climb into his lap and hug him. She had got over that. They were sitting in the library of the girl's residence, she on a divan, he in an easy chair. The windows and doors were open, and a breeze blowing over the garden brought in a delicious perfume of flowers. The man was speaking:

"You don't remember your mother, do you?"

"No. You know she died when I was five. But it seems to me I know her from her letters, many of which I have found and have read over and over again."

"Have you come among her papers upon a copy of a contract she made with me some fifteen or sixteen years ago?"

"No. What contract?"

"It was between your mother and me and was to be kept secret."

"Oh," with a slight toss of her head, "I beg your pardon."

"Some day I may show it to you, but that will depend upon circumstances."

"Indeed!"

A few weeks later the two were together in the garden.

"You remember, I suppose," said the man, "the contract made years ago between me and your mother that I told you about?"

"And refused to say what it was."

"There are conditions under which I may gratify your curiosity."

"Such as—"

"Well, if you marry, for instance."

"I'm sure my mother could not have entered upon any business agreement with you whereby you were to influence me to marry any particular person."

"Certainly not. I would not think of influencing you in such a matter."

"Then how can my marriage have anything to do with it?"

"Your marriage with any particular person doesn't pertain. I meant that in case you were simply married I might show you the contract."

The girl pondered awhile, then said:

"Is there any one I might marry who would have an interest in this agreement?"

If he could have looked into her eyes, he would have seen cunning. Evidently there was something about the subject of their conversation that profoundly interested her. He glanced at her inquiringly, but her head was bent over a flower she was picking.

"There is one," he said, "who if you married him would have no interest in the agreement."

"You speak in riddles."

A smile hovered about her lips, but she kept her back to him, picking a handful of flowers. When she turned the smile was gone.

"There is my cousin Will," she said. "If I married him, would he have any interest in the agreement?"

"Not after the wedding."

"But before the wedding?"

"That would depend upon whether he desired a wedding with you."

"Would it depend upon anything else?"

"Yes; upon whether you desired a wedding with him."

"In other words, this contract would interest him (and me) only in case we wished to marry?"

"You have drawn a conclusion not based on proper foundations. In other words, you have perpetrated a fallacy."

"Suppose," she went on after framing another question, "I should marry you. Would you be interested in the contract?"

He started and cast a quick glance at her. Was she stating a hypothetical case for the purpose of trapping him?

"That, I fear—I mean—you would not be likely to marry me."

"But if I should?"

"The contract would be of no moment to me."

"I like this conundrum," she said presently. "The solution is well concealed. Let me see—if I marry you'll tell me the answer. My marriage with any particular person doesn't pertain. There is one I could marry who would have no interest in the agreement. If I married Will, it would only interest him if he wished to marry me, and even then it would make no difference. If I married you, you would have no interest in it. What is there to base a guess on?"

"Nevertheless I wish you would guess it."

He spoke ruefully. She cast a glance up at him.

"Suppose I try?"

"You can't guess it."

"I can. The contract is that—here it is."

"She pulled out a small paper that had been tucked in her belt and handed it to him. It was a betrothal between her and her companion made for her by her mother when she was a baby."

"I thought you said you had not found it."

"I hadn't. After you told me about it I ransacked all the old desks and cabinets in the house."

"Well?"

"Well?"

"Do you stand by your mother's agreement?"

"She threw her arms about his neck."

Amusements

Skating at the Kramer rink tonight —the last until the latter part of November.

The Grand vaudeville is still pleasing large crowds at each performance. The Three Ross sisters continue to receive a good part of the applause and the work of VanHoven, the magician, is pronounced the best ever seen here. There will be the usual change Monday evening.

The two films shown at the Vaudet last night and to be repeated tonight are the best two ever seen here on one reel. The "Highwaymen" discloses a modern Count of Monte Cristo in a thirteen year old lad who avenges his father's death, but outdoes the count inasmuch as he kills seven men instead of three. Tonight will be the last time Rushville audiences will have the opportunity of hearing J. Wilson, the basso soloist, as he connects his connection with the Vaudet at the close of tonight's show. Very few places in the country can one find a man of his ability singing a five cent

The Reason Why

Peninsular Stoves
Are The Best.

- FIRST. They use a ton less of coal a winter than any other make; a saving of $7 to $8 per year.
- SECOND. It utilizes heat that ordinarily escapes into the chimney and adds fully one-third to the heating capacity of the stove.
- THIRD. It always insures perfect distribution of heat through the rooms.
- FOURTH. It always gives satisfaction. We show the largest line of Steel Ranges, Hot Blasts and Soft Coal Burners in town. Also a complete line of Radiators, American Beauty Gas Heating Stoves and Gas Cookers.
